Bob Marino

Bob took up singing 14 years ago after his good friend Eddy convinced him to join a musical theater group. The rest is history. To date, Bob still considers his appearance on the main stage at the Borgata Hotel and Casino in Atlantic City the highlight of his singing engagements. Bob enjoys doing shows in the area for folks who enjoy an occasional stroll down Memory Lane. Bob dedicates this performance to his lovely wife Karen, son Kenny and daughter Emily.

Barbra Lawson

Barbra has been singing ever since she can remember and has a B.A. in Theater from Kean University. She is married to her best friend Bill and they are blessed with a 4 year old Son named Will. Barbra has the current great fortune of being a stay-at-home Mom. She also is an Independent Sales Representative for Longaberger Baskets. She would like to dedicate this performance, with love, to her Dad who taught her the great standards and accompanied her on the piano.

Luis E. Cabrera

Cuban born tenor, Luis E. Cabrera studied at the Boston Conservatory of Music and is a graduate of Rutgers University 's Mason Gross School of the Arts. Luis was the first place winner of both the NATS Voice Competition and Talent Expo Competition. His professional appearances include productions with the Cosmopolitan Symphony Orchestra of NYC, The American Chamber Opera Company, Opera at Florham and Teatro Grattacielo. He has collaborated with artists such as Licia Albanese, Martina Arroyo, Aprile Millo and Alfredo Silipigni. In addition to Opera, Mr. Cabrera also sings Oratorio, Zarzuela (Spanish Operetta), Art Songs and Musical Theater. Concerts and recitals have led to noted venues such as Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, The Town Hall, Cami Hall, The PNC Bank Arts Center, and Alice Tully Hall Lincoln Center.

Aileen Matos

Aileen has been a certified Arthur Murray Certified Dance Professional for over 12 years and is the recipient of many Top Instructor awards. She has enjoyed the experience of teaching many wonderful people over her career and continues to instruct as well as perform through her association with the Green Brook Arthur Murray Dance Centre. Her students love and admire her for her warm, patient and determined style of teaching and she is well loved and respected among her co-workers.

Leo Mora

Leo has been a certified Arthur Murray Certified Dance Professional for several years now and has come a long way, garnering Top Instructor Awards at the last three Regional pro-am dance competitions, his students coming in for First Place - Top Student Awards in their various categories as well. He continues to instruct singles, couples, classes, and performs and competes with his students as well as with his professional dance partners through his association with the Arthur Murray Dance Centre of Green Brook as well as their location in Highland Park.

Michelle Garced

Michelle with her husband and partner of 30 years is the co-director of the Arthur Murray Dance Center of Green Brook (since 1998) as well as their location in Highland Park (since 1982). She is proud to be entering her 35th year as an Arthur Murray Certified Dance Professional, and her 30th year as a Franchisee in the company. They recently sponsored the opening of the new Whitehouse Station location and are in the process of opening yet another location. Both Michelle and her husband Emilio continue to instruct, coach, train staff, compete and perform, even judging competitive events when time allows.

Steve Dickerson

Steve has been involved in high quality sound and AV services. He is a member of The Stonecrest Community Church.
